

The Gospel Of Debauchery

Anima Damnata

The circle is closed and the moon turned red
I reject your laws and scorn your commandments
The circle is closed your temples are falling down
I deny your God and reject your morality

Upon the inverted crucifix Horned Beast has been crowned
In mass suicide is your salvation
Inside a burning pentagram my sacrifice is bleeding
In mass suicide is your deliverance

The time has come to sanctify the gospel of debauchery with your nun's blood

With worms and maggots in Her moist womb
The Antichrist awaits the infernal call
The final step of ritual has now begun
Rite is going to be completed this night.
