

No More Runnin

Animal Collective

No more runnin
Says my mind
All this movement has just proved
Your kisses are too fine

All the harmony
That I'd seen
Friends I once had turn their thoughts
Away from me

No more runnin
I've got to breathe
On back porches with the torch of a
Firefly-lit tree

It's what I'd hoped for
No more runnin

Well, lock my bones and
Trip my feet
Tell them, find a place to be

Stick like candy
In your teeth
Will you lose your faith in me?

No more runnin
Says my mind
All this movement has just proved
Your kisses hard to find

It's what I'd hoped for
No more runnin
