Home

Home is not the place for...
Home is just where you are
And you are all the world to me.

Call

Call me if you need me
'Cause I'll be there, believe me
'Cause you are all the world to me.

Just say the words that
I'm thinking of, and
Keep telling me,
It's gonna be alright, it's gonna be alright,

(And I
Just say the words and)

And I do
Anything I can to
Anything to help you
'Cause if you need me here I am

And I will
Lift you on my shoulder
And when it's dark I'll hold you
'Cause you are all the world to me.

Just say the words that
I'm thinking of, and
Keep telling me,
It's gonna be alright, it's gonna be alright,

(And I)
Just say the words and

Promise you

Promise you

And I'll be there
And I'll be there
And I'll be there
And I'll be there

Heaven knows I will come to you
Anytime you need me there

Close my eyes and start to sing
Are you really listening?
Oh my lord when I open them, will you still be there?

I Hold my breath and count to ten
This is really happening!
Oh my lord when I open them, will you still be there?
