

Crying in public

Anime

It's all falling apart
Don't want to talk that way
Don't want to tell you there's nowhere to go
But what more is there to say?
The dreams that we share no more
A couple more songs to play
Old lights are gone and the new are not for me
So what more is there to say?
And there's a new wire across the sky
No regrets and no reason why
So let me paint anything
Until I can still see
'Cos I still haven't found it
So who is in with me?
So what more is there to say?
Broken hopes are here to stay

a new wire across
a new wire across the sky
No regrets and no reason why
So let me paint anything
Until I can still see

a new wire across
across the sky {9x}
