

Never come true

Anime

Wouldn't it,
wouldn't it be good to forget how we could love before?
Wouldn't it,
wouldn't it be right to pretend there's something to be there for?

Please just stay as you are don't get to know,
need your lights on as long as you can go
with all yours dreams yet to never come true.

Everyone seems to be so grown up
being wise becomes being sceptical.
Another line brings another full stop
beind safe, avoiding the beautiful.

Please just stay as you are don't get to know,
need your lights on as long as you can go
with all yours dreams yet to never come true,
with all yours dreams yet to never come true.
Just don't want it to die
what's more to know?
The flight is already lost
but still we go.

With all our dreams yet to never come true.
With all our dreams yet to never come true.
With all our dreams yet to never come true.
