

Same as today

Anime

Wanting not enough
Waiting for the more Think there ever was Something to wait for?
Hoping it's the age
can my feelings grow?
Nothing's getting worse
it's always this slow

Don't you know that we were always the same as today
Don't you see there is nothing
that you call your way

Eighteen, twenty, one and it's still that strange wasn't anything inside supposed to change?
it keeps passing on
is there yet any snow don't know if I could pretend that I know

Don't you know
that we were always the same as today
Don't you see there is nothing
that you call your way

You're still just playing like you did before I thought I won't be scared anymore
Stuck behind the glass
do I feel the heart?
Will it ever end?
Will it ever start?

When they don't see me
still watching the sky
still the same blue and the buildings still the same high Don't wonder why

Don't you know
that we were always the same as today
Don't you see there is nothing
you could call your way

Don't you know
that we were always the same as today
And all I see keeps taking my breath away

I lost in yesterdays ...
(I lost in yesterdays)
