

The Wake

Anime

I thought it fades away
Believed the love was not the love
That I lived for today
That soon I'd be sober enough
And I thought I knew what it's like to let it go
I thought that someone else cuts that deep too

So I thought it's just a phase
I've tried to move and make no sound
To find me any place
To be okay when you are not around
To make my home somewhere far away
Far away
I've tried to turn the page to be me again

Why do we run for cover
There won't be any other
I've tried to burn a bridge of stone
It burns so slow
Why do we give up loving
Trying to feel nothing
It's gonna hurt forever
Wanna keep it so

I thought it's just a phase
