

Trees & Aerials

Anime

So you've made it until today what was at the start?
Fear of the dark was okay and all the guitars they were so electric

Some things will stay
some street will say
you won't get far way down anymore

Time to do the things and walk the streets the way you wanted to see there is no growing up just moments of this or of nothing at all

Some street will say
some things will stay
you won't get far way down now
you won't get far way down anymore

And yourself and you together coming back to pale blue This ain't me, oh this ain't anyone There is nothing in what they do and it never was
We knew it all the time
You're not like them
The river smells through pavement cracks please say you know, you know and it all comes to me

There is a tree that you used to know There's one song that will keep you from harm we know that Now don't you recall?
She ought to have blue eyes

There's no difference
Trees and aerials make no difference
Trees and aerials make no difference
To me
