I know it seems like I'm a million miles away
At times you feel like you don't even know me
But in this world the pressure's building everyday
And I need time to work things out - oh baby

It's not that I don't love you - oh no
It's just that I - I've got to have

Room to move - that's all I need
That's all I ask for - room to breathe
Room to move - that's all I need
That's all I ask for - give it to me
Room to move - everybody needs - room to move

Everybody needs some freedom to survive

To shake the chains of responsability

And you can help me make this feeling come alive

'Cause when you hold me close - that's when you set me free

Girl you know I'll always love you - oh yeah 'Cause when we touch - I get so much

You lose your mind - if you don't take time You cross that line and your mind explodes You push too hard - and your feelings starve Emotions are - all destroyed Girl you know I'll always love you - oh yeah 'Cause when we touch - I get so much
