

Stealing Time

Animation

Two thieves in a thin disguise,
Secret plans written in our eyes,
We gotta hide what we've been thinking.

Hidden cameras are everywhere,
Seeing thorough private love affairs;
Preventing a sin before it goes too far
And you can't turn back
Taking what you want,
Caught you in the act

Stealing time to be together
Crystal ?? about to shatter
When you're mine, it's a crime
Stealing time, we're cloak and dagger
Risking all, 'cos nothing matters
But tonight, you and I,
Stealing time to close the doors on the night

You know what my feelings are
Too late for a change of heart
No need to say what's been unspoken
We've already made our choice
Heard the will of an inner voice
No-one must know the laws-
We've broken into a forbidden place
Whatever we find is ours to take

Stealing time to be together
Crystal ?? about to shatter
When you're mine, it's a crime
Stealing time, we're cloak and dagger
Risking all, 'cos nothing matters
But tonight, you and I,
Stealing time to close the doors on the night

It's getting harder to put in more;
It ain't right

Stealing time to be together
Crystal ?? about to shatter
When you're mine, it's a crime
Stealing time, we're cloak and dagger
Risking all, 'cos nothing matters
But tonight, you and I,
Stealing time to close the doors on the night
