Yes, I've been around and I watch you, baby I know you're the one I see you and I cry inside, darlin' The moment has come- but I I try to hide what I'm feelin', baby Don't want you to know It's a feeling so deep in my heart, baby I can't let it go No one to blame If I miss this, sho would be a shame No one to blame, baby Sho is a shame There ain't no reason to doubt me, baby You know I don't lie I tell you from deep down inside, darlin' I'm willin' to try, yes I am This ain't no game that I'm playin', baby

Our love is for real
And I know that it's strong
I know what I feel, yes,

No one to blame, baby
If I miss this, sho would be a shame
No one to blame, darlin'
I miss this, sho would be a shame

No one to blame, baby Sho is a shame No one to blame, baby Sho is a shame, my baby

Life offers no prize, no guarantees
My baby, for missed opportunities
And I won't let you walk by
I've got to try, tellin' you I know it's right
It's the truth, don't you lie, baby-yes

You know that I tried to resist you, baby But I'm losin' my fight, ah yes I mean this, I really do mean this, baby Know that I'm tellin' you no lies

'Cause this ain't no game that I'm playin', darlin' this thing is for real
And I want you to know that it's strong
I know what I feel baby, yes

No one to blame, baby
