God Created Woman

Anita Cochran

It was a man's world for a day and a half
Adam had a garden for a bachelor pad
But something was missing in his paradise
Then along came eve, the apple of his eye
Without hesitation he gave into temptation
¡®cause God created woman to raise a little cain
Gave her a softer side, put fire into her eyes to drive a man i nsane

He knew what he was doing, ; ®cause history has proven Since God created woman man's never been the same Old christopher columbus would have never set sail Without a little push from isabel Alexander graham invented the phone So his wife could ring a bell when she wanted his home Some feminine persistence can make a world of difference ; ®cause God created woman to raise a little cain Gave her a softer side, put fire into her eyes to drive a man i nsane

He knew what he was doing, ¡®cause history has proven Since God created woman man's never been the same It's all a part of the plan, for the good of every man ;®cause God created woman to raise a little cain Gave her a softer side, put fire into her eyes to drive a man i nsane

He knew what he was doing, ¡®cause history has proven Since God created woman man's never been the same
