

The Story Of A New Born Love

Anita Meyer

The secrets we share from the heart
Promise we made from the start
That some would look for that lucky star
Don't need to I know where you are
This magic of true mystery
It's all so unique to me
Well seasons come and seasons go
Yet it's you in my heart you know
Your face is a mirror so that I can see
Feeling that's real in me
I know there's so much to collaborate
And to celebrate

You're my heart and sole
You're my dreams unfold
My knight and shining armer
You're the light of my life
The reason love shines
You're the passion that keeps me going
It's the story of a new born love

You conquered the best that's in me
You trill me with ecstasy
How would I thank you by only to say
Love's history is here to stay
Your face is a mirror so that I can see
Feeling that's real in me
I know there's so much to collaborate
And to celebrate

You're my heart and sole
You're my dreams unfold
My knight and shining armer
You're the light of my life
The reason love shines
You're the passion that keeps me going

How can I be sure that
This is not a fantasy
Or am I being fooled by
Things that I thought were real

It's the story of a new born love

You're my heart and sole
You're my dreams unfold
My knight and shining armer
You're the light of my life
The reason love shines
You're the passion that keeps me going

It's the story of a new born love
It's the story of a new born love
