

Reasons (Don't Take Your Love Away)

Anita Wilson

May I have a moment here with you
A little bit of time to say what's on my heart express to you my sincere truth
I'm so lost without you
Just like a night that can't find the stars or the moon
Oh Lord, you're the only one that I will pursue
No ordinary relationship will do, only you

You give me so many reasons to be happy
You always put a smile on my face
There's no way that I can ever live without you
I'm begging you please don't take your love away

Easy love to tell you how I feel Every breath I take I reacquainted such a mystery where you love me, oh a willing love story
Joy irreplaceable I find that just being with you
Oh Lord, you're the only one that I will pursue
No ordinary relationship will do, only you

You give me so many reasons to be happy
You always put a smile on my face
There's no way that I can ever live without you
I'm begging you please don't take your love away

I will trade in every one of my possessions
And they will have no value without you
I pledge to you my life and make this confession
At the end of forever you will still have my heart
...
