Anjolie

Getting lost, don't know what side
In my mind where no one can go
Think I'm losing my cool, woah

Oh, oh, oh
On my way off the rails, I
Don't pretend like I'm perfect too
As I fear being you old
Oh, oh, oh
Ten times, ten times I said
Ring me as it's on my mind
Our fears get magnified
And my fault is only natural

But I get emotional
Not we are
And I get emotional
But I'm not supposed to let it show
But I get emotional
Not we are
And I get emotional
But I'm not supposed to let it show

Must be nice being flawless
Pull me tight when you got it all out the way
Just don't let down your guard, no

Oh, oh, oh
On my way off the rails, I
Don't pretend like I'm perfect too
As I fear being you old
Oh, oh, oh
Ten times, ten times I said
Ring me as it's on my mind
Our fears get magnified
And my fault is only natural

But I get emotional
Not we are
And I get emotional
But I'm not supposed to let it show
But I get emotional
Not we are
And I get emotional
But I'm not supposed to let it show

I get emotional
And I get emotional
But I'm not supposed to let it show
I get emotional
And I get emotional
But I'm not supposed to let it show
