

Loveless Metropolis

Anjolie

Like shoe sized in department stores
You tried every girl on
Put 'em back on the shelf once you got bored
Once you got bored, once you got bored
You sang all the same songs
But I'm better off
But I'm better off

Far away from these booty calls
Or from these shopping malls
And eyeballs and
These ushers in my head
Far from these anxiety meds
Far from these ten out of tens
Make me feel like
I'm not even there

Got my six inch heels
Seven figure I could deal
Two proteges all day
All day, all day, all day
And the champagne fountains
Turning from pink to gray
Turning from pink to gray
And I just got paid
I just got paid

Like shoe sized in department stores
You tried every boy on
Put 'em back on the shelf once I got bored
Once I got bored, once I got bored
I sang all the same songs
But I know I'm better off

Far away from these booty calls
Or from these shopping malls
And eyeballs and
These ushers in my head
Far from these anxiety meds
Far from these ten out of tens
Make me feel like
I'm not even there
