Changin'

Don't play with my heart
Take me for granted, I got your name on me tatted
Can't understand how you actin', you ain't the same

Changin'
Tell me why you're changin'?
We you made arrangements
I took you places
I feel you changin', why you won't say shit?

I called you hours ago
Why would you lie to me for?
Why was you not by your phone?
I see the change in your tone
I should just leave you alone, changin'

Changin'
Tell me why you're changin'?
When you made arrangements
I took you places
I feel you changin' (I feel you changin'), why you won't say shit?

Up in your ear
I'm changin' my bitches like clothes (Like clothes)
But I'll never switch up, them hoe tryna clique up
At first it was perfect then we had a hiccup
I'm stealin' your heart like a stick up (Stick up)
Hop in this pick up and come eat this dick up
'Cause I need you urgent (Splurgin')
You might get hurt if you're lurkin' (You're lurkin')
Just be cool and you might get a Birkin (Birkin)
She was callin' my line, it was out of service
If it's him against me, we can do a versus
For your love I got hit after hit after hit after hit
It's a lot of temptation when you gettin' rich
Told the bitch she gon' pop out as long as you lit
She wanna leave, it's hard to forgive
When she turned on you and your heart didn't spit
Don't be bitin' your tongue, just say what you meant
She ventin' (She ventin')
She tell me that I got a bitch
You probably don't understand, I'm from the trenches
You probably don't understand how I'm livin'
I gave you my heart to stand on the business
I need a witness (Yeah)
Don't tell me you changed, don't tell me you changed
Girl, how you changin'?

Changin'
Tell me how you're changin'?
We you made arrangement (Oh, oh)
I took you places (Changin', changin')
I feel you changin' (I feel you hangin', changin'), why you won't say shit?

Changin', changin', changin'

Changin', changin', changin'
Changin', changin', changin'
Changin', changin', changin'
Changin', changin', changin'
Changin', changin', changin'
Changin', changin', changin'
