

Hate Love

Ann Marie

I give my all and that's the problem
Cuz I don't never get it in return
When I let my guard down, I end up hurt
Guess you live and you learn

Saying that you different but really you're the same
Telling me you love me but only bring me pain
Used to think love was all I ever needed before
But not anymore

I hate love
That's a fact, and I know that love don't love me back
I hate love
Get the strap, I'm shooting cupid in his fucking back
I hate love
Nothing left to give, to me it's something that just don't exist
I hate love
That's a fact, and I hate that love don't love me back

I got a love hate relationship with love bae
Giving my heart a break, tired of all the heartbreak
I done gave enough, now I'm giving up
Opened up, tried to trust, now I'm better off

Saying that you different but really you're the same
Telling me you love me but only bring me pain
Used to think love was all I ever needed before
But not anymore

I hate love
That's a fact, and I know that love don't love me back
I hate love
Get the strap, I'm shooting cupid in his fucking back
I hate love
Nothing left to give, to me it's just something that just don't exist
I hate love
That's a fact, and I hate that love don't love me back
