

Intro

Ann Marie

I've been abandoned by the nigga that's supposed to love me the most been

Raped by a nigga was crazy but we was close when he was taking it I felt like the nigga taking my soul

And out of all of that you probably the one I despise the most

Cause you the only fucking nigga that I'd went to

I done told you every fucking thing that I've been through

Expressed how I really hated niggas fore I met you

Just for you to turn like every nigga I've ran into

That shit is kinda crazy to me

Let's take it back

Momma put me out at age 17

I was raised in them streets

Just a young girl tryna eat

But all I had was was empty pockets and a dream

Man that shit runs kinda deep

I was barely goin to school grades failing

Hanging on the blocks with them hustlas and them fellons

Real fucking killas if they catch you then they nailin

Old heads talking I ain't understand the message

Now I think I get it

I'm too bright for this life that I'm living man something gott a change

Fighting everyday just to cope with pain drinking henn blowing trees just to keep myself sane

I did lost a couple homies to this street shit

But none amount to the pain when I lost big sis

To be honest I don't really think I been right sense

Gotta change my life I ain't been living righteous

And I ain't just write this

Man this shit a true story

Never got the reason why momma was hard on me

Now I understand she just wanted the best for me

And I'ma be the reason we are never fucking worry again