

Love Language

Ann Marie

Tell me why you lane switched
Use to speak my language
But you still know where home is, home is

Tell me why you lane switched
Use to speak my language
But you still know where home is, home is

Tell me why you lane switched
Use to speak my language
But you still know where home is, home is

Tell me why you lane switched
Use to speak my language
But you still know where home is, home is

Hate you moved on from a nigga
Long face vibes look wrong on a nigga
I been seeing you on the phone with a nigga
You act happy like nun wrong feelings
I be missing what I own not to mention
When I'm with the bitch I be looking at ya pictures
I wasn't being the bigger person that's the issue
But tell yo new nigga that he ain't knock me out the picture
I'm the one gave you the game
I'm the one gave you butterflies with a chain
Even when you left I was wishing you the best Ann that ain't mean find you a lame
And naw Ian blind to the fame
I'm locked in witchu I ain't trying for yo name
When we first met girl that feeling was the best it made my whole mind switch lanes
I miss you

Tell me why you lane switched
Used to speak my language
But you still know where home is, home is

Tell me why you lane switched
Used to speak my language
But you still know where home is, home is

Boy you 'bout to make a bitch bug out
Tell me why when arguments get heated then you run out
Tweeting shit on twitter like you done but where you at now
Be real you wasn't entertaining hoes we wouldn't be here now
But listen
Why we steady playing with they feelings
When we know our hearts ain't in it
Look the only reason why the nigga here is cause you isn't
And I know that I be tripping but this shit with us is different
I mean ain't nobody hit it since you hit it
But I don't wanna go there I don't wanna do that Shorty you my baby but you already knew that Bet not never say you done hell and back we been thru that Fuck them other niggas baby I just want my boo back

Tell me why you lane switched
Used to speak my language
But you still know where home is, home is

Tell me why you lane switched
Used to speak my language
But you still know where home is, home is

Used to speak my language
But you still know where home is, home is

Used to speak my language
But you still know where home is, home is
