

Try Again

Ann Marie

Think you're my person but we just met up at the wrong time
'Cause I got baggage and you still fuck with bitches on the side
I feel we would be perfect in another life
But right now, it's just time to say goodbye

You can try to fight it, but you always find your way right back to me
But this shit toxic, make it hard to stay but impossible to leave
Can't keep this up
We fight then fuck
Say I'm done, but you call right now, baby, I'ma pick up
Hate we gotta give it up, oh baby

We could be perfect, but boy, the timing ain't, my mistake
Soon as you call me, usually I'm on the way, but not today
Wish shit could be different 'cause you know you my lil' bae, it's been that way
And if it's meant (Yeah)
Baby, maybe one day we can try again
When you're alone
Try again
Hit my phone
Try again
Come on
Baby, maybe one day you'll be mine again
Hopefully
Mine again
You and me
Mine again
We'll meet
Got a feeling that I'll be seeing your ass again

Don't get attached to no one 'cause baby, I'm not that far
This shit temporary, just don't forget that part
Don't forget I'm the one who got your heart
I won't forget you 'cause you left your mark

May try to fight it, but I always find my way right back to you
'Cause them niggas cool, but the difference is them niggas just ain't you
Can't keep this up
We fight then fuck
Say I'm done, but you call right now, baby, I'ma pick up
Hate we gotta give it up, oh baby

We could be perfect, but boy, the timing ain't, my mistake
Soon as you call me, usually I'm on the way, but not today
Wish shit could be different 'cause you know you my lil' bae, it's been that
And if it's meant (Yeah)
Baby, maybe one day we can try again
When you're alone
Try again
Hit my phone
Try again
Come on
Hopefully
Mine again

You and me
Mine again
We'll meet
