

Everywhere I Go

Anna Abreu

I walk along the streets
Remembering the past
Whispering my wandering mind
I knew would not last

Everywhere I go
you're deep inside my soul
I'm winding down this lonely road
Everywhere that I go

I see the light in your eyes
Taste the moisture of your kiss
A breath of life in your sweet cologne let's me know that I exist traces of your light are Disappearing from my life

I wish that I could hold you now
But I can only cry

Everywhere I go
You'll be inside my soul
Walking down
this lonely lonely road
Everywhere that I go

Everywhere I go
Everywhere I go
All along on this lonely lonely road you're everywhere I go
