

Mr. Perfect

Anna Abreu

You try to act like you're flawless
So high on yourself
Think you're too good to be true
Like it's you who built all this
But that ain't the case
Boy, you know it takes two
Me and you
Don't try to blame it on me
You brought this on yourself
Stop acting like you own me
Or I'll find someone else

You're the only one you're thinking of
And you try to place yourself above
I think it's time for me to call your bluff

You think that you're mister perfect
But I just don't buy it
I'm wasting my time with you
Cause you're not worth it
You're living a lie
Just trying to hide from who you are
Cause you're not worth it
And you don't deserve me
You're so far from perfect
And you don't deserve me

You keep on burning your bridges
Blinded by the smoke
So you can't see what I see
When I'll be gone, you're going miss this
Don't know what you got there's no one other like me
I'm sick'n tired of your games
Save it for someone else
I know that I can't make you change
You got to do it yourself
I think it's time for me to call your bluff

You think that you're mister perfect
But I just don't buy it
I'm wasting my time with you
Cause you're not worth it
You're living a lie
Just trying to hide from who you are
Cause you're not perfect
And you don't deserve me

Grow up
Make a change
If you want me to stay
Make me your number one
Boy, starting today
You've got to learn from your mistakes
Or I'll walk away

You think that you're mister perfect

I'm wasting my time with you

You think that you're mister perfect
I'm wasting my time with you
No, you don't deserve me
