

Right in Front of You

Anna Abreu

I don't know why
It takes me so damn long to get things done
It's like to get into a room, but I can't find a way out
And I start feeling down, down!
I don't know why
It's that fine, it's so hard to believe
What the world really need is almost next to me
Uh, and I still keep searching,
Keep searching!

Chorus:

When everything you've ever been looking for is there
Right in front of you!
Right in front of you!
And everything you've ever been dreaming of is there
Right in front of you!
Right in front of you!
It's now, or it might be never,
Or it might be never, oh, oh
And everything you've ever been dreaming of is there
Right in front of you!
Right in front of you!

I'm not sure why
I can be so afraid to say goodbye
To the person I used to be when I was a child.
Uh, I know it's right, oh!
I'm not sure why
I sometimes find it so hard to let go,
But things I prevent them from moving along
Uh, and I'm stuck with suspicious

Chorus:

When everything you've ever been looking for is there
Right in front of you!
Right in front of you!
And everything you've ever been dreaming of is there
Right in front of you!
Right in front of you!
It's now, or it might be never,
Or it might be never, oh, oh
And everything you've ever been dreaming of is there
Right in front of you!
Right in front of you!
Uh, uh, uh
Uh, uh, uh

Give it up, give it up, give it up
But try to get real
Give it up, give it up, give it up
But try to get real
Give it up, give it up, give it up
But try to get real
Give it up, give it up, give it up

Chorus:

When everything you've ever been looking for is there

Right in front of you!
Right in front of you!
And everything you've ever been dreaming of is there
Right in front of you!
Right in front of you!
It's now, or it might be never,
Or it might be never, oh, oh
And everything you've ever been dreaming of is there
Right in front of you!
Right in front of you!
