

Night

Anna Blue

Shadows of the night appear
My eyes, they're dripping like rain
Slowly falling from the sky
Talk to me, just one last time

I search for you at night, I'm just alive
My heart, is beating so slow
Thought you should know
I love you

Shadows of the night appear
My eyes, they're dripping like rain
Slowly falling from the sky
Talk to me, just one last time

My heart melts like ice
And my soul breaks in two
I feel the coldness on my skin
So sad and so alone

I search for you at night, I'm just alive
My heart, is beating so slow
Thought you should know
I love you

All so silent. Every night
I listen to my heart
Whispering your name

My heart melts like ice
And my soul breaks in two
I feel the coldness on my skin
So sad and so alone
