

Unbroken

Anna Blue

All I feel is hate
Kinda like I'm trapped and can't escape
You've cut my wings and locked me in a cage
It's sad how you decided our fate

I'm feeling cold and dead inside (Inside)
Just can't get you off my mind (My mind)
Now my heart turned into stone
Guess that I'll be better off alone

I don't know if my heart can ever be unbroken
If there's someone who can pick up all the parts
And even though I'm breathing I am choking
As I'm trying to glue together all the shards

I wish my heart would be unbroken, unbroken, unbroken now
I wish my heart would be unbroken, unbroken, unbroken now
Unbroken

All I feel is pain
As if I got run over by a train
The situation's messing with my brain
Because you got me shackled like a chain

I'm feeling cold and dead inside (inside)
Just can't get you off my mind (my mind)
Now my heart turned into stone
Guess that I'll be better off alone

I don't know if my heart can ever be unbroken
If there's someone who can pick up all the parts
And even though I'm breathing I am choking
As I'm trying to glue together all the shards

I wish my heart would be unbroken, unbroken, unbroken now
I wish my heart would be unbroken, unbroken, unbroken now

I don't know if my heart can ever be unbroken
If I'm able to love again (Whoah oh), baby
I don't know if my heart can ever be unbroken
Will I find someone else? (Whoah oh)

I don't know if my heart can ever be unbroken
If there's someone who can pick up all the parts (To pick up the parts)
And even though I'm breathing I am choking (Baby, I'm choking)
As I'm trying to glue together all the shards (Whoah oh)

I wish my heart would be unbroken (unbroken), unbroken (unbroken), unbroken now
I wish my heart would be unbroken, unbroken (yeah), unbroken now

Unbroken, unbroken
Unbroken, unbroken
Unbroken
