

Away

Anna Calvi

There is no shadow of mine
There is a rage in the sky
Is this the moment sublime

You know I ask no more of it all
You know I ask no more of it all

There is no time for a lie
There is no time to decide
Into the sky entire

You know I ask no more of it all
You know I ask no more of it all
You know I ask no more of it
You know I ask, just take it all

And I will blow it away
Away, away, away, away, away
