Fazed

Anna Clendening

You're in my bed, but I'm somewhere stuck in my head
So scared of falling again, 'cause I've been here fore (I've be en here before)
It all feels so right, but I care enough for goodbye
So when you go and change your mind, it doesn't hurt

You say you're here, tell me I'm enough
You take the pain and you make it love
You hold me close when all I wanna do is run

You're not fazed
Even when I'm pushing away
Saying that it's used to
The truth is, I'm just hoping that you'll stay
You're not fazed
Even when I'm forced to take
Making up stories 'cause I don't wanna make the same mistakes
Oh no, you're not fazed (Fazed, fazed)

I can't open up, always been told I'm too much
So I keep you just out of touch, don't wanna ruin it
But when I'm with you, the whole world just falls out of view
Now I got nothing to prove, 'cause I'm seeing nothing but you

You say you're here, tell me I'm enough
You take the pain and you make it love
You hold me close when all I wanna do is run

You're not fazed
Even when I'm pushing away
Saying that it's used to
The truth is, I'm just hoping that you'll stay-ay-ay
You're not fazed
Even when I'm forced to take
Making up stories 'cause I don't wanna make the same mistakes
Oh no, you're not fazed

(Fazed, you're not fazed)
Oh no, you're not fazed
(Fazed, you're not fazed)
You're not fazed

Even when I'm pushing away
Saying that it's used to
The truth is, I'm just hoping that you'll stay
