

Get Back Up Again

Anna Graceman

Have you ever had your spirit crushed
But still stand?
In the shadows feeling tough like the shield
Against suffering
Just know I was born to make a difference
Won't bow down to defeats demands
Serving every corner for existence
Even from the wreck bounce back with a plan
Yeah, yeah

I'm unbreakable
I'm unshakable
Against the tide against the storm
Take head now
You've been warned
When life feels like chaos
That's when the strength reborn

They tell us sky's the limit
But the drop is unforgiving
There's nothing worse than wishing
That I shoulda woulda did it

I might fall
Now and then
I might fall
Imma get back up again
I might fall
Now and then
I might fall
Imma get back up

We were born to be fighters, campfire full of survivors
Rise above the sound, the world can't deny us
Heart like a lighthouse, gonna keep shining
The mystery is always worth finding
Unveil the truth, know what wonders can do
Reshape reality, got the power in our mind
The strength in our feet from the moon to the sun
Gonna break new grounds, leaving marks on these times

They tell us sky's the limit
But the drop is unforgiving
There's nothing worse than wishing
That I shoulda woulda did it

I might fall

I might fall
Now and then
I might fall
I'ma get back up again
I might fall
Now and then
I might fall
I'ma get back up

Ah, ah ah ah ah, ah
Ah, ah ah ah ah, ah
Ah, ah ah ah ah, ah
I'ma get back up again
