

Heart and Hands-7 let

Anna Graceman

Do you need my heart and hands to keep you company?
Do you need my eyes for directions?
Do you need an answer for every question that you make and a light to guide your way?

Do you need my heart and hands through the darkest tunnel and my love for protection?
I know that you love me and you know I love you too but now its your choice to go.

Do you need my eyes to see or my heart to calm your beat?
No matter what its your choice to go.

Do you need my heart and hands to keep you company?
Do you need my eyes for directions?
Do you need an answer for every question that you make and a light to guide your way?

a light to guide your way?
