Heartbreaking Truth

Anna Graceman

You were the best thing that happened to me
But the worst thing was watching you leave
All the tears that I crying
Could've filled a thousand skies
And when the clouds are finally gone
I still couldn't move on

I'm not saying
You have to come back to me
All I'm saying is if you ever do
Oh I'd forget every heartbreaking truth
To re-fall in love with you
Oh I'd forget everything I thought I ever knew
Just to be with you

Oh the best thing was being with you
But the worst thing was that you was untrue
Can you imagine my surprise to learn about all your lies
And though loving you was wrong
I still couldn't move on

I'm not saying
You have to come back to me
All I'm saying is if you ever do
Oh I'd forget every heartbreaking truth
To re-fall in love with you
Oh I'd forget everything I thought I ever knew
Just to be with you

Do you ever feel like I'm feeling now
When you wish you could turn back time somehow
But time is wasting
And I'm done chasing after you
I've done all I can do

I'm not saying
You have to come back to me
All I'm saying is if you ever do
Oh I'd forget every heartbreaking truth
To re-fall in love with you
Oh I'd forget everything I thought I ever knew
Just to be with you
Oh I'd forget everything I thought I ever knew
Just to be with you
