

Poison

Anna Graceman

Boy, call me crazy
I know that for sure
I've lost all your love
And I can't get no more
I'm lonely
What else am I supposed to say?
I hope you're lonely too
Cause I'm crying for you
In a desperate kind of way

Well I'm walking
Yeah, I'm walking
And I'm talking to myself
Cause I ain't got no one else
No
A broken heart's no way to go
I'm falling out of line
And using borrowed time
You're like poison in my mind

I'm going insane
Because, you're with her
It's taking over me
And I can't find any cure
So lonely
What else am I supposed to say?
You're not lonely are you?
You don't even have a clue
Oh I wish you would've stayed

Cause I'm walking
Yeah, I'm walking
And I'm talking to myself
Cause I ain't got no one else
I'm falling out of line
And using borrowed time
You're like poison in my mind

Caught in a habit
Of calling your name
I tried to smile but can't
And you're the one to blame
Feeling lonely
Seems that's all that I can say
I hate that I miss you
But there's nothing I can do
Except wait for it to fade

For now I'm walking
Yeah, I'm walking

And using borrowed time
