Roaring Twenties

Anna Graceman

Champagne glasses, spinning to the classics
Caught up in the madness and magic
Red lip kisses, blink and you might miss it
Cinderella rags turn to riches

We're timeless just like black and white
A midnight diamond sky, mmh
Inspired by the things that last
And what we can't get back, mmh

The roaring twenties
Louder than a lion, wild and unruly
Roaring twenties
If we're not in the moment, are we even living?

Glitz and glamour, delicate swagger
Floating on the wings of a blackbird
Lost in glitter, paint a pretty picture
I know that I'll always remember

The roaring twenties
Louder than a lion, wild and unruly
Roaring twenties
If we're not in the moment, are we even living?
We're just rolling in our golden years
And we're swinging from the chandeliers
The roaring twenties
Roaring twenties

Young and so untethered
But nothing lasts forever
So let's just enjoy it while we can

The roaring twenties
Louder than a lion, wild and unruly
Roaring twenties
If we're not in the moment, are we even living?
We're just rolling in our golden years
And we're swinging from the chandeliers
The roaring twenties
Roaring twenties
