

Skeleton

Anna Graceman

I've been talking with the silence
Whispers and the quite
They tell me more than you ever did
They say if I look I'll find it
All what you've been hidin'
I'm starting to think I'm one of them

Am I just, another skeleton?
Just a secret you keep close
Am I just, another skeleton?
Only meant for the shadows

It wasn't 'till the light came on
I realized I've been in the dark
You tell me, "Have your feelings gone cold?"
Were they ever even there at all?

Am I just, another skeleton?
Just a secret you keep close
Am I just, another skeleton?
Only meant for the shadows

I feel it in my bones
Something I don't know
It's the way you're holding me
You're keeping me close

I feel it in my bones
Something I don't know
It's the way you're holding me
You're keeping me close

Am I just, another skeleton?
Just a secret you keep close
Am I just, another skeleton?
Only meant for the shadows
