

Every moment
I'm moving in slow motion
Like I'm just an ocean of blue
Time keeps going
It's a river that's flowing
Emotion has got me consumed

Dive into the deep end, like this is a pool
Weightless like I'm up in the clouds
Breaking through the surface and keeping my cool
Swear that nothing can bring me down

Carried away, swimming through space
Sweet serenade
Rolling on these soundwaves
Carried away, falling like rain
Sweet serenade
Rolling on these soundwaves

Tides are rising
Walking on the horizon
I'm finding my mind is at ease
In the quiet
I hear melodies rising
Yeah silence says more than you think

Dive into the deep end, like this is a pool
Weightless like I'm up in the clouds
Breaking through the surface and keeping my cool
Swear that nothing can bring me down

Carried away, swimming through space
Sweet serenade
Rolling on these soundwaves
Carried away, falling like rain
Sweet serenade
Rolling on these soundwaves

Pulling me in
I'm so convinced
That this is where I'm meant to be
Floating on air
Seeing so clear
Immersed in this serenity

Carried away, swimming through space
Sweet serenade
Rolling on these soundwaves
Carried away, falling like rain
Sweet serenade
Rolling on these soundwaves
