

Who We Are

Anna Graceman

Keep your questions to yourself
You don't need to ask nobody
And we don't need nobody else
Take a road to somewhere sunny

I'll grab your hand and we'll go
If you're along for the ride
Then we'll reach for the stars
Yeah we'll reach for the sky
And we'll make new mistakes
Cause we're one of a kind
If you stumble and fall
I won't leave you behind
Capturing secrets and we'll put them in jars
We don't know who we'll be cause we don't know who we are

Who we are [x3]
We don't know [x2]
Who we are [x3]
We don't know [x2]

Keep the answers to yourself
You don't need to help nobody
And we don't need nobody else
We've got each other, fame and money

I'll grab your hand and we'll go
If you're along for the ride
Then we'll reach for the stars
Yeah we'll reach for the sky
And we'll make new mistakes
Cause we're one of a kind
If you stumble and fall
I won't leave you behind
Capturing secrets and we'll put them in jars
We don't know who we'll be cause we don't know who we are

Who we are [x3]
We don't know [x2]
Who we are [x3]
We don't know [x2]

Ooh woah you're stumbling down
Stumbling down
Come stumbling
Ooh woah you're stumbling down
Stumbling down
Come stumbling

Did you take my advice?
Not to give up twice
Did you learn from other's misfortune
Did you push along
Or did you sing a hopeless swan song
Thinking falling apart was your only option?

I'll grab your hand and we'll go

If you're along for the ride
Then we'll reach for the stars
Yeah we'll reach for the sky
And we'll make new mistakes
Cause we're one of a kind
If you stumble and fall
I won't leave you behind

Ooh woah you're stumbling down
Stumbling down
Come stumbling
Ooh woah you're stumbling down
Stumbling down
Come stumbling

Capturing secrets and we'll put them in jars
We don't know who we'll be cause we don't know who we are

Who we are [x3]
We don't know [x2]
Who we are [x3]
We don't know [x2]
