

Cruel

Anna Leone

One day, I'll cross a line
One day, I'll have to say goodbye
One day, time will be cruel
Our lives drifting apart too soon

Oh I play hopeful game
But I know what lies in wait
Oh one day my world will sink
And I'll have to learn to swim

One day, that's all it took
I saw signs everywhere I looked
I mean every drop of rain

Oh I play hopeful game
But I know what lies in wait
Oh one day my world will sink
And I'll have to learn to swim

How do we show all the love in our hearts?
How do we face our fears?
How do we cope when our loved ones are gone?
How do we dry our tears?

Oh I play hopeful game
But I know what lies in wait
Oh one day my world will sink
And I'll have to learn to swim
