

Your Light

Anna Leone

There's something I'd like to say
Standing in your shade
I look for you everywhere
Your loving embrace

I can feel my senses fade
Leaving me behind
You knew how to soothe me
You knew my mind

Won't you help me understand
Won't you help me understand
Let me rest my head on your chest again

I can hear a gentle breeze
Standing by the sea
I planted a flower
It made me weep

Won't you help me understand
Won't you help me understand
Let me rest my head on your chest again

I can see your light so sweet
Everywhere I turn
There's something I'd like to say
Can you hear my words
