

Your favorite color is the color of my aura, aura
Aren't you gonna take me home
A new religion, switch hits, 'n pitches, visions
My piss and vinegar cannot condone
That I might lose refuge to something so unreal
Steals my two eyes off you
Just wanna be naked and weightless before I lose it too

Down to the river
Under the water
I found a savior
Down at the bottom
Down to the river
Under the water
I found a savior
Down at the bottom

Pretty little miss slimness gives kisses on the wrist with the twist of a ly mphis
I'm no god, I'm no Lolita, I won't follow the leader
And I wish I could be pretty like that, pretty like that, pretty like that But I'll never be free like that, free like that, free like that I sing Jolene and crash, bleed and cry, rally and laugh
I go down to the water, to the water

Down to the river
Under the water
I found a savior
Down at the bottom
Down to the river
Under the water
I found a savior
Down at the bottom

And there's freedom in letting go
Breathing the toxins out of my lungs
And slowly dying I look above to the vital surface
Keeping my eyes on a higher sun
And if you're meant to be with me
You'll be if you see what I see someday
Won't we laugh at this when our fist is one, but until then

Down to the river
Under the water
I found a savior
Down at the bottom
Down to the river
Under the water
I found a savior
Down at the bottom
