

Indecision Kills

Anna Nalick

Oh in - oh in - oh indecision, indecision kills
Oh in - oh in - oh indecision, indecision
Ooh

Oh in - oh in - oh indecision, indecision kills
Oh in - oh in - oh indecision, indecision
Ooh

We can stay up all night
Your brother's house or mine
We can debate the things that make us crazy
Maybe I'm in love with you
Even if you do not want me to
Even if I'm more a sketch to you
Than a photo you keep in your wallet

I was so very drunk, now
The body's in the trunk
By that I mean of course the bleeding fact that We're back in the sack, oh lord
It's gonna break that stupid girl's poor heart
Or give her something real to hate you for
So in a way, I just did you a solid.

What do you say we go to Vienna, or I don't know
Tell me I look like home
And we'll stay here and appease this
Troubled move-by-move like two chess pieces

I know all about the breakdowns, and I cannot say I blame her
Seeing as how we've both got you in common - We're probably the same, or close to it
And aren't we all the same if God's the spark that we're all made of Wait shut up that's just my higher chakra talking
Baby, take your hat and let's go back to bed

Oh in - oh in - oh indecision, indecision kills
Oh in - oh in - oh indecision, indecision
Ooh

On the night we met,
Remember what we said?
We swore if in four years, we're still unsettled
We would have a baby son
Or daughter; has it really been that long?
Then maybe we should keep our overcoats on Because God's got a weird sense of humor

Oh I sort of wish you'd call
Then again, not at all
Cause I'm not ready to go steady
But I'd like to know I'm not the muse
Who paints your portrait and goes down on you
Then gets the shovel and the sweep under until you deem it
Due time to exhume her

What do you say we go marry in Mexico?

In seven months or so, when we settle and our deal's up
We can have a son or just tequila

You know all about the breakdowns and
They didn't seem to phase you
Because you know despite the circumstance
We're both in better places now

So lets go to your brother's house or mine where we can talk it out
And by the way - no pseudo strangers analyze our body language
Tell the girl the flight's delayed, or tell her you made a mistake
You say she makes you lonely but you won't surprise me anyway

Piano's closed and your eyes are making
Promises your lips are keeping
And I forgot how good you taste
It started now, so baby take your hat and let's go back
Take your hat and let's go back
Baby take your hat and let's go back to bed

Oh in - oh in - oh indecision, indecision kills
Oh in - oh in - oh indecision, indecision kills
Oh in - oh in - oh indecision, indecision kills
