

Red Light

Anna of the North

Tell me
Tell me

Out of luck
Maybe I should give it up
I forgot
Whatever I was dreaming of

Have a feeling I'm not really used to
I need someone to tell me the truth
Do I seem like myself when I'm with you?
Am I thinking way more than I should?

Tell me if I run another red light
Can't see, might as well just close my eyes
If I'm free, why do I feel stuck inside?
Stuck inside

Stressing out
I can't even leave the house
Too many doubts
Too many things to figure out

Have a feeling I'm not really used to
I need someone to tell me the truth
Do I seem like myself when I'm with you?
Am I thinking way more than I should?

Tell me if I run another red light
Can't see, might as well just close my eyes
If I'm free, why do I feel stuck inside?
Stuck inside
Tell me if I run another red light
Can't see, so I just close my eyes
If I'm free, why do I just stay inside?
Just stay inside

Tell me

Tell me if I run another red light
Can't see, might as well just close my eyes
If I'm free, why do I feel stuck inside?
Stuck inside
Tell me if I run another red light
Can't see, so I just close my eyes
If I'm free, why do I just stay inside?
Just stay inside

Tell me
Tell me
Tell me if I run another red light
Can't see, might as well just close my eyes
If I'm free, why do I feel stuck inside?
Stuck inside
