

Oh Mary

Anna Ternheim

No man could make her happy
She'll chew you up
The lucky get out in time
You got to get out in time

No woman can be her friend
Only the means to an end
Get out in time
You got to get out in time

Oh Mary wants all your love
Lies on your doorstep like a wounded dove
Oh Mary gets under your skin
Walks out when you're broke
She takes everything, oh Mary
Oh Mary, don't be blind
She f*cks with your mind
No place could be her home

She'll beg you to keep her warm
Her voice is so soft
Her eyes so cold

No drugs, not sex, or money
No sweet sugarcoated candy
Could feed her soul
Or make her feel as old

Oh Mary wants all your love
Lies on your doorstep like a wounded dove
Oh Mary gets under your skin
Walks out when you're broke
She takes everything, oh Mary
Oh Mary, oh Mary, don't be blind
She f*cks with your mind
