

Remember This

Anna Ternheim

In the city where we met
Black leaves in the wintertime
The stage is set
There's a part to play for everyone
I held on to my beliefs
Every time life let me down
Love was just a traveler passing through
Changes are all that I really knew

Just a ? remember this
A soul stays forever young
Someone walks into your life
Hopefully could be the one
?? enemies
My mind's a million miles away
I don't even know your name
But it echoes on and on and on
I don't even know your name
But it echoes on and on and on

In a city so alone
Some grow young, some grow old
Chased by their own shadows

With their eyes set on the throne
I held on to my beliefs
Every time life let me down
Fate's a wicked friend
Who lives on, no matter what
And without regret

Just a ? remember this
A soul stays forever young
Someone walks into your life
Hopefully could be the one
?? enemies
My mind's a million miles away
I don't even know your name
But it echoes on and on and on
I don't even know your name
But it echoes on and on and on

Just as love finds you dim
It goes on and on and on
I don't even know your name
But it echoes on and on and on
