

Nothing Personal

Anna Waronker

I just got you back and I've lost you
We said goodbye a long time ago
I didn't want to

I just want you to know that it's nothing personal
When she tells you no no no no no

It's the season of the witch tonight
Is it worth it to be rich tonight?

She's seeping in, I can't help it
I can't take my mind off of this
I don't know what's selfish
Certain friends call and others won't listen
These are not my burns that glisten

I just want you to know that it's nothing personal
When she tells you no no no no no

It's the season of the witch tonight
Is it worth it to be rich tonight?

It's the season of the witch tonight
It's the season of the witch tonight
It's the season of the witch tonight
Is it worth it to be rich tonight?
