

Jealousy Blocks Your Blessings Every Time

Anna Wise

Do you know?
The rest is not decided for us yet
Unsettled

Do you know?
(Not so easily distracted or irritated)
You can follow the herd or you can
Follow your inner voice (pulse)

Do you know?
Despite how we've been programmed with lack behavior
You never miss what's for you
Myself told me it's as easy as breathing

Does the shower envy the waterfall?
How differently those waters move
One traveling through pipes
And right angles
To dance over bodies
Then back to the drain
More angles and enclosures
Wishing to be part of the whole
Like the other
In the open air
Passing over rocks and forming them
To the will of the one

How differently those waters move
Does the shower envy the waterfall?
