

I'm not gonna play the safe side
Feeling all of my pride fading
Steady reaching for a moment
Where I'm feeling like I'm fully in it

I'm not gonna play the safe side
Feeling all of my pride fading
(Lately I've been being selfish but I'm)
Steady reaching for a moment
Where I'm feeling like I'm fully in it
(Moving past that old shit work it)

Almost done settled down
You were sewn in on my left side with a pin in my eye like a vo
odoo needle
Almost done, not my style
How can you live in a love denial when you know what it is

I don't wanna live a simple life
When I'm not a simple woman (Lately I've been somewhat reckless but)
I'm just trying to live my best life
No I never meant to hurt you
(But I got to do this for me)

Almost done settled down
You were sewn in on my left side with a pin in my eye like a vo
odoo needle
Almost done, not my style
How can you live in a love denial when you knew what it was
