

The Now

Anna Wise

Welcome to the now
The now
The now
The now...

May you show up as you really are
And not a performative display
May you always be yourself
It's between you and your God
Your God
Your God
Your God
Your God
Every day there is a ritual
Every day awake in gratitude
Get your instrument in tune!

I'm only as enlightened as I am in this moment
My love is genuine it's not a performance
Open your Heart wider
Release the mind program let go of what you're used to

Welcome to the now
The now
The now
The now...
