

Worm's Playground

Anna Wise

Sometimes I lie, mostly to myself
For now I'll ride it out
Someday, someday
They'll all see the side of me
The side I hide from myself

In time you won't change, you will reveal
All along it was being revealed
Someday I'll be a worm's playground
Return to Mother, soil is womb

I'm out here being honest hoping to be met with honesty
What more was to be expected coming from you to me
But I woke up feeling so brave I woke up with a siren inside

In time you won't change, you will reveal
All along it was being revealed
Someday I'll be a worm's playground
Return to Mother, soil is womb
