

Let The Feelings Go

AnnaGrace

Even when your heart is aching
Even when the clouds are fading I won't let you down
I will be around
You gotta let it go
Let the feelings grow
Don't need to run away
You gotta understand
I'll be here 'til the end
I'm here to stay

Let the feelings go
Let the feelings go when the music starts 'cause it feeds your soul
When the moon is bright then the feeling's right deep in your soul

Let the feelings go
Let the feelings go when the music starts 'cause it feeds your soul
When the moon is bright then the feeling's right deep in your soul

Even when your heart is aching
Even when the clouds are fading I won't let you down
I will be around
You gotta let it go
Let the feelings grow
Don't need to run away
You gotta understand
I'll be here 'til the end
I'm here to stay

Oh
Uh oh

Oh
Uh oh

Oh
Uh oh

Oh
Uh oh

Let the feelings go
Let the feelings go when the music starts 'cause it feeds your soul
When the moon is bright then the feeling's right deep in your soul

Let the feelings go
Let the feelings go when the music starts 'cause it feeds your soul
When the moon is bright then the feeling's right deep in your soul

Let the feelings go
Let the feelings go when the music starts 'cause it feeds your soul
When the moon is bright then the feeling's right deep in your soul

Let the feelings go
Let the feelings go when the music starts 'cause it feeds your soul
When the moon is bright then the feeling's right deep in your soul

Oh

Uh oh

Oh

Uh oh
