

Haunt You

Anne-Marie

You

You never quite said it
'Til death do us part
I bet you regret it
When you kiss her in your car
Why won't you admit it?
I know that it's hard
To say I'm the reason you're scared of the dark

Although I left, I'm not gone
It's funny how every day you say that you moved on
Hahaha

I hope that
Everywhere you go and everything you do
You'll never forget me, I'll be watching you
And when you take her home
You're kissing someone new
You'll be wishing it was me on top of you
And when she's in your bed, I'll be in your head
You'll be thinking 'bout me instead
Everywhere you go and everything you do
You'll never escape me, baby, I'm gon' haunt you
There's nothing I'd rather do

You asked me to promise
To leave you alone
But that would be boring
So, sorry, it's a "no"
'Cause I kinda like it when I'm fucking with your head
I kinda like the games I play
I smile when I see you upset

Although I left, I'm not gone
It's funny how every day you say that you moved on
Hahaha

I hope that
Everywhere you go and everything you do
You'll never forget me, I'll be watching you
And when you take her home
You're kissing someone new
You'll be wishing it was me on top of you
And when she's in your bed, I'll be in your head
You'll be thinking 'bout me instead
Everywhere you go and everything you do
You'll never escape me, baby, I'm gon' haunt you
There's nothing I'd rather do

Everywhere you go and everything you do
You'll never forget me, I'll be watching you
And when you take her home
You're kissing someone new
You'll never escape me, baby, I'm gon' haunt you
There's nothing I'd rather do
Nah, nah, nah, nah

I know where you live
So watch your fucking back
I'ma teach you not to treat a girl like that
First thing when you wake
The last thing that you see
You get what you give when you mess with me
